ORDER

Fin(Rev)/11-165/part/209/67

Whereas under article 67 of diploma No. 1785 of the 7th April 1958 lease agreements of residential properties have to be presented to the taluka revenue office in original for registration and record within ten days from their execution.

And, Whereas, as a consequence of the coming into force of the Indian Registration Act, and the need for registering documents in the offices of the sub-Registrars of Assurances, it is not always possible for the parties to register the documents in the taluka revenue offices within the time limits allowed by law;

And, Whereas, this causes hardship to parties which it is necessary to remove;

Now, Therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause 2 of the Goa, Daman and Diu Removal of Difficulties Order 1962, and all other powers enabling me in this behalf, I, K. R. Damle, Lieutenant Governor of Goa, Daman and Diu, hereby direct that notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Portaria No. 5031 dated the 2nd February 1950, or any other law in force prior to the 20th December, 1961.

1. Lease agreements which are compulsorily registrable under the Indian Registration Act, may be presented to taluka revenue office for registration within 30 days from the completion of the registration of the said document by the sub-Registrar concerned.

2. The party who is required to present the documents for registration in the taluka revenue office may, however, at his option, request the sub-Registrar to forward the documents to the taluka revenue office for registration therein on completion of its registration under the Registration Act and when the taluka revenue office is situated in another town he shall further deposit with the sub-registrar at the time of making the aforesaid request a sufficiently large envelope, duly stamped, for despatch of the said document by registered post, to the concerned taluka revenue office.

3. On the making of such request and the deposit of the envelope as aforesaid the party shall be deemed to have complied with his obligation to register the lease agreements.

4. The sub-Registrar shall send monthly to the taluka revenue office concerned a list of all documents registered therein which are liable for registration with the Fazenda under Article 67 of Diploma No. 1785 of the 7th April 1958 and which he has not been authorised or required by the party presenting it for registration to transmit to the taluka revenue office.

5. In the case of documents which are not compulsorily registrable under the Indian Registration Act, the provisions of the aforesaid Diploma No. 1785 of the 7th April, 1958 shall remain in force as before.

8. The penalty for non-registration of an agreement with the taluka revenue office and all other provisions of any law relating to the registration of lease agreement in the Fazenda, shall continue to be the same as they were prior to the issue of this order.

7. These orders shall come into force with effect from 10th April, 1967.
